Campbell to Testify in Support of Online Gaming

Washington - Tomorrow morning (Nov 18), Congressman John Campbell (R-CA) will be giving testimony at the House Subcommittee on Commerce, Manufacturing, and Trade advocating for the many benefits of legislation to legalize online gaming in the United States.

Campbell, along with his lead Democratic sponsor Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA), is the author of H.R. 1174, the Internet Gambling Regulation, Consumer Protection, and Enforcement Act. This legislation would create a highly regulated framework with a strong consumer protection program allowing Americans to legally and safely gamble online while simultaneously opening the door for a brand new industry. Campbell is also a cosponsor of H.R. 2366, the Internet Gambling Prohibition, Poker Consumer Protection, and Strengthening UIGEA Act, authored by Chairman Joe Barton (R-SC).

The Subcommittee's "Internet Gaming: Regulating in an Online World" hearing will be streamed live online on the House Committee on Energy and Commerce's website.
